Biography of Tonya Plummer

Director of Native American Housing Programs, Enterprise Community Partners

Tonya Plummer serves as the Director of Native American Housing Programs at Enterprise Community Partners. She is an enrolled tribal member of Assiniboine, Sioux and Cree heritage with roots in the Sisseton Wahpeton Sioux Tribe of South Dakota and the Fort Belknap Indian Community in Montana. Prior to joining Enterprise, she worked as a mortgage underwriter, was the founding director of a Native CDFI in Montana, guided her tribe in preparing for and adopting the HEARTH Act and helped create the Montana Native Homeownership Coalition.

Enterprise Community Partners is a national nonprofit working to make home and community places of pride, power and belonging for all. Enterprise advocates on a nonpartisan basis for sound public policy at every level of government and develops and deploys programs and supports community organizations on the ground nationwide, in urban, suburban, rural and tribal areas. Since its founding 40 years ago, Enterprise has invested more than $347 million in Indian Country. Enterprise's work is guided in partnership with tribes, Native communities, and partner groups focused on Native housing, including the members of Enterprise's Native Advisory Committee.

Enterprise's Tribal Nations and Rural Communities Team has sought to support safe, decent, and culturally appropriate housing on tribal lands and rural communities since 1997. We work across the country. Some of our current projects include collaborating with Fannie Mae to create materials to advance Native homeownership, working under a Memorandum of Understanding with the Department of the Interior to invest private capital in housing on reservations, and training on the Enterprise-written Native Housing Developers Guide for multifamily housing development in Native communities.
